Founded in 2003, Interfaith Hospitality Network provides housing, meals and support to homeless families with children and single females. Day services, such as job searches, housing, budgeting and parenting skills, along with shower and laundry facilities are provided at the Family Center, located in Olathe. Evening meals, shelter, breakfast and the packing of the day's lunch are provided at one of our 35 participating network congregations. The agency has no religious ties and support congregations do no evangelizing.
